

Andy McClean Harmonicas and Voice

Melbourne born and raised, Andy McClean plays music.
26 years as a radio broadcaster, in Melbourne with EON fm - Triple M, ABC
Radio 3LO, and 3XY. Also 2NX Newcastle. Radio 6NW/6KA Karratha 1994-95.
2GO fm 107/ SEAm 101.3 1995-2003

Singer and harmonica player with Melbourne Blues outfit The Bruhaas, between 1988 and 1993.

Andy McClean provides voice over services: retail, narration, character, and development.

Has worked extensively with a variety of Melbourne artists and other Australian acts both live and studio. Touring internationally with entertainer Louis King 2016 ... said King of McClean “ he could find a positive in a box of odd socks”

A songwriter

Yeah Nah Yeah 2013: Andy McClean & The Incanters

4 recordings collections with The Chicken Train Skiffers

“The Green & White Lollies In The Chook Pen At Grans”

“Pluck Me In The Morning: A Chicken’s Nightmare A Banjo’s Lament”

“Live At Patonga “Dynamic Lifter”

see The Chicken Train Skiffers Showreel

“My Girlfriend’s Got Tourette’s” EP

Questioned about the minimal representation online of the Chicken Train Skiffers McClean told Acid Country “ .... you can find us online ... right next to the socks and underpants”

Tour/studio register

Lachlan Bryan & The Wildes

Louis King

Hannah Aldridge [USA]

Mr Alford

Tom Dockray

Phil & Trudy Edgeley

Chris Wilson

Willie & The Dixons

Dave & The Derros 1978/79 [drums]

John Mayall & The Bluesbreakers with John McVie, Colin Allen; Mick Taylor 1981

Hillary Cliff

Brock Henry

Neil Anderson & Jake Lardot

Lance Friend & The Murky River

The Chicken Train Skiffers

Lightning Jack

Boot Hill & The Midnight Rodeo

Mark Campbell

Bobby Valentine

The Grizzlee Train

Brandon Dodd

The McCleans, with Son Woodie McClean

Living in the Northern Rivers area of NSW. The entertainment world is now a different shape.

“Be the puzzle you want to complete.” - Toza SILVA

